Passing Criteria (Senior School Certificate Examination)

1. A candidate will be eligible to get the Pass Certificate of the Board, if he/she scores atleast 33% in all subjects of internal assessment unless he/she is exempted. Failing this, result of the external examination will be withheld but not for a period of more than one year.
2. In order to be declared as having passed the examination, a candidate shall obtain atleast 33% marks in all the five subjects of external examination in the main or at the compartmental examinations. The pass marks in each subject of external examination shall be 33%. In case of a subject involving practical work a candidate must obtain 33% marks in theory and 33% marks in practical separately in addition to 33% marks in aggregate in order to qualify in that subject.
3. An elective subject offered as an additional subject may replace one of the elective subjects offered by the candidate in case a student fails in any of the main elective subjects.

UNFAIR MEANS RULES:-

In accordance with the guidelines and regulations set by the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), the following rules regarding unfair means during examinations are established to maintain the integrity and fairness of the assessment process. These rules are applicable to all students appearing for internal and external examinations conducted by the school.

Definition of Unfair Means:- Unfair means refer to any activity or behaviour by a student that provides them or others with an undue advantage during an examination. This includes, but is not limited to:

- 1) Possession of unauthorized materials: Carrying notes, chits, electronic devices, or any other material not permitted in the examination hall.
- 2) Copying or attempting to copy: From another student's answer sheet, notes, or any other source.
- 3) Assisting others: Helping or allowing another student to copy from one's answer sheet.
- 4) Impersonation: Appearing for an examination on behalf of another student or allowing someone else to appear on one's behalf.
- 5) Disruptive behaviour: Creating disturbances in the examination hall or refusing to follow the instructions of the invigilator.

- 6) Tampering with answer sheets: Altering or destroying answer sheets or any examination-related documents.
- 7) Using electronic devices: Possessing or using mobile phones, smartwatches, Bluetooth devices, or any other electronic gadgets during the examination.
- 8) Leaking question papers: Sharing or obtaining question papers before the examination without authorization.

Penalties for Using Unfair Means:-

The school follows a strict zero-tolerance policy towards the use of unfair means. Depending on the severity of the offense, the following penalties may be imposed:

- 1) Cancellation of the examination: The student's answer sheet for the particular subject will be cancelled, and they will be awarded zero marks.
- 2) Debarment from future examinations: The student may be barred from appearing in the remaining examinations of the current session or future sessions.
- 3) Suspension or expulsion: In cases of serious misconduct, the student may face suspension or expulsion from the school.
- 4) Disqualification from examinations: The student may be disqualified from appearing in the current or future examinations.
- 5) Record of misconduct: A note regarding the use of unfair means will be recorded in the student's academic record, which may affect their future academic and professional opportunities.

The CBSE has also issued a circular dated 20/1/25 on the detailed stringent rules pertaining to the use of Unfair means by students in the board examinations. The parents are advised to go through the circular in detail (available on the CBSE Website)

Parental Involvement:- Parents/guardians will be informed immediately if their child is found using unfair means. They are expected to cooperate with the school in addressing the issue and ensuring that such behaviour is not repeated.

Note: These rules are subject to updates as per the latest CBSE circulars and notifications. Students and parents are advised to stay informed about any changes.
